COMMERCIAL.

The business interests of the country continue to languish, and the condition of affairs in Europe only has a tendency to unsettle the produce market. Everything is flat, and the scarcity of money is the all-absorbing topic, and the market very dull, with several hundred left most hopeful are desponding of any improvement until after the next harvest. The banks are supplying the necessary funds for commercial purposes, but outside is where the shoe pinches. In Baltimore the demand for money is reported light, with a full supply for commercial purposes, and rates are quoted at 4a5 per cent for loans, and 41a6 per ct. for discounts, at which rates with first class collaterals, the Sun says, any amount can be obtained. In New York the market continues to rule at 6a7 per ct. for call loans. Mercantile paper is dull and nominally 5127 per ct. The quotations for money at Philadelphia are 41a51 per cent for loans, and 51a71 for commercial paper. The rates for gold are lowering, being at $123, with but a very moderate demand. State securities generally are quiet; sales of Virginia consols in Baltimore yesterday at 59%a59%; coupons at 83%a83%. Tennessee old 6s were 383a39, and other State issues were nominal. Government bonds quiet and a shade easier. B. & O. common stock 77, 76, 75, some shares selling at the latter price, the market for them closing at 74 bid, 76 asked; only a few shares being offered at the latter price. The first preferred were offered at 100, with 93 bid. Nothing doing in local shares, which are quoted as follows:

WEATHER PROBABILITIES .- War Depart nent, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Wash ngton. D. C. April 12. 1878-10:30 a. m.-For the Middle Atlantic States clear or partly cloudy weather, westerly winds, stationary temperature and higher pressure.

COLORED CONSERVATIVES .- The executive committee of the colored conservative club met last night, Magnus L. Robiosov, the chairman, presiding. Several members of the c'ub were present, including R. B. Hopkies, the president. The committee transacted considerable business pertaining to the thorough organization at the coming election. M. L. Robinson offered the following resolu tions, which were unanimously adopted, and the chairman author zed to report the commit tee's approval to the club :-

Whereas in order to promote our own welfare and that of the white people among whom we were born and raised, we, a portion of the colored people of the city of Alexandria, formed club to act in conjunction with the conservative party of said city. And whereas at several late elections, both State and municipal, the colored people assisted in bearing aloft the conservative banner; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That to cement that cordial good will which ought to exist among the people of the city of Alexandria, both white and colored we, the colored conservative club of Alexandria, cordially invite all colored persons to unite with us in the approaching primary election in maintaining our organization as a nucleus around which all may rally who love their country and desire to live in peace and harmony with their fellow citizens. Resolved, That a committee of four members of this club be appointed to represent this organization at the meeting of the conservative committee to be held on the 30th instant, and present our views and a copy of these resolutions.

M. L. Robinson, Edward Carter, R. B. Hopkins, E. C. Evans, and C. Jackson were appointed a committee to present the resolutions to the conservative committee. The committee then adjourned.

DECISION FOR THE CITY. - In the Court of Appeals of Virginia, yesterday, Judge Moncure delivered the opinion of the Court, affirming the judgment of the Corporation Court of this city in the suit of Von Hoffman, vs. Russell. By this opinion a claim of the city for ground rent upon the exeper shop proper y on Duke street, amounting to about $2,200, and interest, is sustained. The question involved was whether or not the purchaser of property at a commissioner's sale could refuse to pay the ground rent due at the time of sale, though required to do so by the city, to whom the rent was due. Jadge Lowe, at the September term, 1876. ordered the fund to be paid over to the city, and this decree is now affirmed.

and held for payment. FISH REPORT .- Since vesterday's report there have been received at Fishtown 1500 shad, which brought $25; 60,000 herrings at $8a10; 300 bunches of rock and perch at 25 etc. There was also received one stur, con, which sold at $4.121. The arrival of this latter fish is regarded by old fishermen as an nofavorable sign, as sturgeon generally follow up the last of the herring and devour the spawn. FAST DRIVING .- The Mayor has received many camplaints about the practice of fast driving indulged in by many persons, especially on King street. As will be seen by the police report one gentleman was fined this morning for indulging in this forbidden amusement, and the Mayor has instructed the police to arrest all offenders hereafter.

VIEWING THE PREMISES .-- A rather unusual cene was witneseed on Canieron street this morning, being the judge, counsel and jury of Corporation Court, marching in procession, marshalled by the Serreant, to view the premises in dispute in the ejectment a uit of Burke the party returned to the court ho.use.

NEW YORK, April 12 -William M. Tweed died in Ludlow street jail at precisely 12 o'clock to day. He was attended by Dr. Carnochan, who had been with him since an early hour th's morning. A'so Mr. Foster Dewey, 11 o'clock, when Dr. Carnochan announced a head lying upon his arm. Keeper Kiernan was hurrically summoned three minutes before dropped back dead in his bed. His last words to Dr. Carnochan were: "I have tried to do some good, if I have not had good luck. I am not afraid to die. I believe the guardian until the last payment is made. angels will protect me." The announcement of his death spread rapidly and a crowd of The first quarterly concert of the Sunday curious people soon assembled outside the jail peering eagerly into the half closed windows. Tweed had been dangerously ill for several days. His death resulted from a complication The rumor of the finding of young Fisher's of disorders, but was caused directly by nervous exhaustion and a clogging of the action of the heart. He was delirious last night and early

It offers a rare 11, 1878.—I see in your valueable paper many Mr. Oscar Baggett will have at his stall, in names brought out for the next Congressman the market building, to morrow, some of the from this District. If Judge Thomas would best fresh meat brought to market this season- allow his name to be used he will find cordial support in this county. Certainly old Fairfax, as far as I can learn, is opposed to the present incumbent. I have heard no dissentient opinion on that subject round about here, and everybody thinks he has been in long enough, and ought to be satisfied, and retire gracefully, while there is time. Next to Judge Thomas the people prefer Neale, of your city. This much VINCES.

THE MOST PRECIOUS OF GIFTS.-Health is undeniably a more precious gift that riches, honor or power. Who would exchange it for these, the chief objects of human ambition? It is obviously the part of wisdom to employ means for the preservation of health and the prolongation of life which time and experience have proved to be reliable. Many of the dan-gers by which health is threatened may be nullified by the use of that most irresistible of corclasses, both white and colored, has been carried so far into successful operation, such as it is hoped will eventually reward the generous Talbott, of Danville; R.
